

"TIME OUT!" on Executions!

Please join
Floridians for Alternatives to the Death Penalty on the Florida Moratorium Walk
(for a "time out!" on executions in Florida.)

WHO: Floridians for Alternatives to the Death Penalty
WHAT/WHERE: 143 mile walk from death row to the state capitol
WHEN: Start: Martin Luther King Day (Jan. 21)
End Jan. 31 with Lobby Day and the final walk events

Why support Floridians for Alternatives to the Death Penalty's Moratorium Campaign? Simply stated, as it currently exists, Florida's death penalty is unfair, risks executing the innocent (23 innocents taken off death row – SO FAR!), and is generally a wasteful and counter-productive public policy. We seek a "time out" on executions until the system can be impartially reviewed and its flaws corrected. For details, call us or visit <www.FADP.org>.

Please join us as we walk 143 miles from Death Row to the State Capitol in Tallahassee to deliver thousands of signatures on petitions urging a Moratorium on executions in Florida. Participants may walk for an afternoon, a day or two, or for the full 143 miles. Everyone is welcome, and accommodations are available for the physically challenged.

BE an individual or organizational co-sponsor of this event by contributing funds, people or other resources, and by helping to spread the word! Help solicit endorsements from community leaders and organizations who agree to join the call for a Moratorium on executions in Florida.

To receive a Florida Moratorium Campaign organizing packet and/or registration materials for the Florida Moratorium Walk, please contact Floridians for Alternatives to the Death Penalty or visit our web pages at <www.FADP.org>.

Cooperating groups to date (Dec. 3, 2002) include: Death penalty alternatives or moratorium coalitions representing BROWARD County, GAINESVILLE, JACKSONVILLE, TALLAHASSEE, and the FLORIDA SUN COAST; Grandparents for Peace, the Florida Coalition for Peace & Justice, and the North Central Florida Green Party.
